The English Stationer

June 2010. It's official: we are a nation of dog lovers! I have printed all shapes and sizes of dogs, from Afghans to Yorkshire Terriers on correspondence cards and some orders have even been personalised for the dog itself... I use copyright free images that I find on the internet so if you are looking for something a little different let me know – all the best ideas come from my customers! I am not doing so many fairs this year (I spent a huge amount of money on stands and childcare for my four children last year...) so I will be working at home this summer trying to find that elusive work-life-balance (!) and with the wonders of modern technology and our lovely British Posties I am hoping you will keep me busy. I look forward to hearing from you. With kind regards, Jo Hinde

Invitations... I design bespoke invitations using your words and your choice of colours, fonts and images. I can print small or large quantities and prices start at £1.25 per invitation including an envelope. If you have something in mind please send me an e:mail with your words and ideas on design and I will send you a free proof.

Announcements... If you have something special you would like to announce it's so much nicer to do it on paper rather than electronically. Let me know if you are on the move or expecting a new arrival. Like my invitations I work from your words and ideas to create something unique for you. Also don't forget that a box of correspondence cards with a friend's new address or new baby's name makes the perfect present.

Small Business Stationery... with so many unique table top businesses springing up its nice to have business stationery that looks a bit different from your high street printer's offering. So if you are looking for compliment slips, gift vouchers, thank you cards etc that look more like personal stationery than corporate stationery please get in touch.

Recommend a friend... I would love to hear from you if you can recommend my stationery to three of your friends. Just drop me an e:mail with their addresses and I will send you a bundle of eight Thank You cards worth £6. Just a word about my mailing list: I don't buy mailing lists and I don't sell mine or share it with anyone else.
